Much Disappointment Over the Absence of Mr. Parnell-Resolutions Presented

Rumors of Dissatisfaction in the Party-Current Events Beyond the Sea. Special to The Times by Dunlap Cable Co. DUBLIN, Oct. 6.—The conference of the Irish Parliamentary party was opened this afternoon under the presidency of Mr. Jus-tin McCarthy in the house of Mr. Parnell. The proceedings were conducted with closed doors, but afterwards a public meeting was held at which five resolutions were submitted. The first one condemn the Government joining the syndicate indlords organized to depopulate certain estates in the county, and calls for legisla ants to their holding as in 1887. The second refers to the failure of the po-ato crop, and demands that the Govern-nent suspend proceedings for recovery of tive enactments restoring the evicted ten

The third refers to the meanness of the Government in striking at the members of the Parliamentary party in the present crisis, and trying them before a tribunal without a jury to prevent their going to America in order to appeal for aid for their suffering countrymen.

America in order to appeal for aid for their suffering countrymen.

The fourth calls on the Irish people to renew their subscriptions to the Tenants' Defence Association until steps be taken to open the national fund.

The fifth informs the American people that in view of the enormous importance before the general election of making the situation in Ireland clear to them Messrs. John Dillon, William O'Brien, Timothy D. Sullivan, O'Connor, Timothy Harrington, and Abraham Gill will proceed to the United States.

The announcement at the last momentate that Mr. Parnell would not attend the corference caused a general disappointmentand speculation as to the reason. The organs of the Parnellites had laid specifies on the fact that every metable would be present to-day, and Mr. Parnelli presence was taken for granted. His all researce was taken for granted. He sence certainly robs the proceedings of importance. Rumors are current that the party is divided upon recent events in Iroland. It is certain that if members of the party who are defendants in the conspirace party who are defendants in the conspira party who are detendants in the constitute case at Tipperary, absent themselves from the hearing of the magistrate in order the attend to-day's meeting, the Dublin authorities will adopt stringent measures in order to force their reappearance in Tipperary at the earliest moment. REMORED DISAFFECTION IN THE PARTY

The Irish Times says: Incre are rumors that there is no unanimity in the inner circles of the Irish party. Whether the differences which almost rent them in twain some time in the past, who has been greatly accentuated lately, will prevent an amicable and unanimous meeting in Dublin today can positively say such is the tenor of my information." It concludes with a rider that the leaders are at loggerheads, and the interests and prospects of Mr. Davitt's new papers, "The Labor World" and "United Ireland" clash, and the creat sympathetic chiefs are daggers drawn.

Mr. Michael Davitt was interviewed by a reporter, and said: "As far as I am aware, there is nothing of the sort. I do not see how the interests of a paper published in Dublin. The remarks are the pure spectuation of a coercionist organ, which is hostile to both publications. I am unable to explain Mr. Parnell's absence from today's meeting. I understood he would certainly attend, but I presume he is not well."

ARMOR PLATES IN THE BRITISH NAVY.

The British naval authorities are by no means convinced of the micriority of armorplates in modern warfare, in spite of recent American experiments, and the Admirally therefore propose to institute a fresh series of tests at Shaiburyness.

EDWARD EASTON CREEMATED.

The body of Edward Easton, who committed suicide in St. Paul's cathedral during the morning service on Sunday, September 28th, was cremated yesterday at Woking cemetery. The ceremony was attended by the personal friends of the deceased and the members of the National Secular Society. The process occupied two hours and forty minutes. DISTURBANCES FRARED

Mr. Knox, M. P., speaking at Hampton, near Accrington, about nineteen miles north of this city, said, in reference to the Irish question: "The Irish members do not want the people of that country to be debased by charity or fed by pity, but they desire a change in the system of government which will in the system of government which we enable them to feed themselves." It is qui the winter, but Englishmen must not be to critical if, under terrible provacation Irishmen do things which men who have u fear of starvation would not do.

THE AMERICAN FAMINE FUND. THE AMERICAN FAMINE FUND.

Speaking at the meeting of the Irisiparty to-day, Mr.J. Redmond referred to the American famine fund, and said: "N. Irishman can read of it untouched. No people in the world have such reason to be grateful to American as the Irish people therefore it behooves the Irish leaders begint out to the Americans that the money and subscription in the past served more to fill the coffers of the landlords than for the object intended by the generous donors."

BURIED ALIVE.

A Gloomy and Terrible Religious Prison in Naples.

(Special to The Times by Danlap Cable Co. NAPLES, Oct. 6 .- A remarkable case of religious fanaticism has just been brought to light here. In a secluded quarter standa conventual establishment known as the "Nunnery of the Buried Alive," that has been closed to all public knowledge and in-vestigation certainly during the memory of the oldest inhabitant, and reports add that been closed to all public knowledge and investigation certainly during the memory of the oldest inhabitant, and reports add that the religious authorities have preserved the same secreey for the past four hundred years regarding what has happened within its walls and the character of the inmates.
The veil, however, is at last removed, and the citizens are lost in amazement that such scenes could for years be enacted in their midst and no note of warning been sounded, nor would the revelation now have been made had not a young girl, crossed in love, been incarcerated within its wails. Her parents, while at first consenting to the banishment, and even securing it, at last becoming alarmed at their inability to communicate with her, appealed to the police.
The civil authorities, therefore, raided the place on Saturday on an order issued by the Minister of Justice. The doorkeeper stoutly resisted, but was overpowered by the gendarmes, who soon found their way into the cells where the majority of the wretched inmates were discovered. Sixteen nuns were found in a condition bordering on insanity. They were scantily covered with rags, and their surroundings were filthy in the extreme. Many of the poor creatures had forgotten how to talk and were more bestial than human in their demeanor. These who could be induced to speak, protested that they were perfectly satisfied with their fate. The young girl for whom the quest was made, was found reduced to a mere skeleton. Her parents are parly crazed with grief at the result of their conduct, as they acted for what they considered the girl's best interests. The establishment has, of course, been closed, and the victims removed to one of the public institutions, where they will be well cared for. The Governor of Naples has ordered the fullest investigation, with the view of punishing those who shall be found to be responsible.

The excitement produced by the discovery of the condition of affairs in the nunnery of the Buried Alive grows more and more intense instead of diminishing. Following out the order of the government of the city to make the fullest investigation, ten more nuns have been liberated, eight of them being young women who were incarecrated against their will by order of their parents. The managers of the police force have been ordered to make raids on all South Italian nunneries which are closed to the public. Cardinal San Felice has left here to-day for Rome in order to obtain instructions from the Pope on the subject.

Special to The Times by Dunlap Cable Co. LIVERPOOL, Oct. 6.-The long agitation has resulted in the strike of over 2,000 car ters for an advance in their wages. There was a demonstration to-day, and the business at the docks is greatly upset. Goods are standing in the streets which are usually thronged with carts and the lobbies are deserted. Many of the masters and treamsters are driving their own teams.

It is expected that the masters will accede to the demand by the men, otherwise it is stated that the dock laborers will assist he carters by striking.

SPEECH BY THE PRESIDENT.

At Clifton Forge there was a large crowd waiting to greet the President and to serenade him at this station. The President left his dinner to respond to the calls of the assemblage. He said: "My friends, I hope you will excuse me from making a speech. I have traveled for the first time over the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad, and I have noticed with great interest and pleasure the development which is being made along the road of the mineral resources of the State of Virginia, [Cheers.] What I have seen moves me to offer my sincere congratulations on what you have already accomplished, and what is surely in store for you if you but make use of your resources and opportunities." [Cheers.] Secretary Tracy was loudly called for. He made a brief speech, in which he said that no State was making more rapid strides in the development of more rapid strides in the development of her manufacturing and mineral resources than Virginia. THE STATE LINE.

Elopement in Lynchburg-Latest Re-

NORFOLK, VA., Oct. 6.—[Special.]—A passenger train Sunday afternoon at Dyerspecial from Aulander, N. C., tells a horrible tale of a double murder which took place there last Saturday night. Mr. Atkins, a prominent cotton grower and his aged mother were both killed by a negro who crushed in their skulls with an iron hall and then set the house on fire in three ball and then set the house on fire in three lay asleep in bed, and says that he struck her three times. The neighbors were her three times. The neighbors were attracted to the scene by the flames as they shot through the windows of the residence, and by turning out promptly succeeded in extinguishing them before the body of Mrs. Atkins had been roasted. They found Mr. Atkins had been roasted to almost a jelly and his face was so badly battered that it was almost unrecognizable. A trail of blood leading from the house showed that the murderer had dragged the body of his victim out of doors after he murdered him. People living in the vicinity of the scene of the crime are greatly excited, and searching parties have been scouring the country for the murderer, who made his escape, after completing his work of butchery, on a mule belonging to Mr. Atkins. A negro, named Kinch Freeman, who picked cotton for Mr. Atkins, is suspected of having committed the crime, but has so far evaded arrest.

A large number of delegates from the Peninsular counties arrived in Norfolk to-morrow. They will leave in special cars over the Norfolk and Western road with the Norfolk delegates for Suffolk to-morrow morning. The indications to night are that Judge D. Tucker Brooke, of Norfolk, will be the nominee of the convention. He will be placed in nomination by Alfred P. Thom, a member of the State Committee. Dr. J. W. Lawson, a prominent Alliance man of 1sle of Wight county, will also be probably placed in nomination.

we expect to pay all the expenses and money advanced and take care of the visiting soldiers. You know these are no small things to do. We want some money left in the hands of the officers that may be in charge of the mandates of the convention for the purpose of corresponding with all the various heads of the several religious bodies, also the heads of the large civic societies to have them ratify the day established by the convention and ask Congress to legalize the same. Now, shall we leave the said officers the work to do and the money to do it with, or the work to do and memory? Shall the convention meet, spout big speeches, pass resolutions, resolve and resolve, adjourn to go home, and never hear anything more of the cause or work, as we have known spouting and speechmaking conventions to do heretofore?
